WM Named Category Leader for Fourth Consecutive Year among World's Top Companies

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Nov. 24, 2021-- Waste Management (NYSE: WM) today announced its listing on the 2021 Dow Jones Sustainability Index (DJSI) World and North America Indices for its commitment to environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) leadership and its commitment to responsible and sustainable business practices.

This marks the fourth year for WM to be the category leader in Commercial & Professional Services. Overall, WM has been represented on the DJSI since 2004.

To achieve its best-in-category recognition, WM ranked as follows on the DJSI:

- #1 in Governance & Economic Dimension
- #1 in Environmental Dimension
- #2 in Social Dimension

"As we continue our sustainability journey, we meet and exceed the stringent sustainability standards to be ranked on the DJSI among other leading companies around the world because of the tireless commitment to progress by our nearly 50,000 team members," said Tara Hemmer, senior vice president and chief sustainability officer, WM. "It's an honor to be recognized with this distinction as WM continues to focus on our mission of always working for a sustainable tomorrow."

WM also recently announced it expects to invest $200 million in recycling infrastructure in 2022, bringing the company's investment in new and upgraded recycling facilities to over $700 million since 2018. In addition, the company shared the WM 2021 Sustainability Report, where WM noted achievements including how the company implemented employee uniforms made of Unifi's REPREVE fiber, woven with recycled plastic; exceeded its 2025 goal to power more than half of its compressed natural gas fleet with renewable natural gas (RNG); and expanded its Your Tomorrow benefit paying for education and upskilling opportunities for both employees and their dependents starting in 2022.
