In the report, the company's president and chief executive officer, David Steiner, highlights the important and growing focus on making recycling sustainable over the long term.

"In 2014 and 2015, Waste Management has been laser-focused on raising the profile of the importance of recycling, including how to make it efficient and sustainable — both economically and environmentally," said Steiner. "If recycling is going to be sustainable over the long term, we must have honest conversations about cost. We must have a clear understanding of the benefits. And, we must all work together to help drive much-needed solutions."

Waste Management will release their next full report in December 2016. To view the 2015 update, and other company Sustainability Reports, visit wm.com/sustainability.
