

Waste Management Named as a 2017 World's Most Ethical Company by the Ethisphere Institute for the Tenth Time

Mar 13, 2017

HOUSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 13, 2017-- Waste Management (NYSE:WM) has again been recognized by the Ethisphere Institute, a global leader in defining and advancing the standards of ethical business practices, as a World's Most Ethical Company®.

This year marks Waste Management's tenth year to be recognized, underscoring the Company's ongoing commitment to leading ethical business standards and practices.

"It is truly an honor for us to be recognized for our very real commitment to integrity and doing what is right, both of which are foundational aspects of everything we do, every day," said Jim Fish, president and chief executive officer, Waste Management. "Our 41,000-plus teammates, and their actions, define who we are as a company, and this recognition is truly a testament to them."

2017 is the eleventh year that Ethisphere has honored those companies who recognize their role in society to influence and drive positive change, consider the impact of their actions on their employees, investors, customers and other key stakeholders and use their values and culture as an underpinning to the decisions they make every day.

"Over the last eleven years we have seen the shift in societal expectations, constant redefinition of laws and regulations and the geo-political climate. We have also seen how companies honored as the World's Most Ethical respond to these challenges. They invest in their local communities around the world, embrace strategies of diversity and inclusion, and focus on long term-ism as a sustainable business advantage," explained Ethisphere's Chief Executive Officer, Timothy Erblich. "Congratulations to everyone at Waste Management for being recognized as a World's Most Ethical Company."

Methodology & Scoring

The World's Most Ethical Company assessment is based upon the Ethisphere Institute's Ethics Quotient® (EQ) framework which offers a quantitative way to assess a company's performance in an objective, consistent and standardized way. The information collected provides a comprehensive sampling of definitive criteria of core competencies, rather than all aspects of corporate governance, risk, sustainability, compliance and ethics.

Scores are generated in five key categories: ethics and compliance program (35%), corporate citizenship and responsibility (20%), culture of ethics (20%), governance (15%) and leadership, innovation and reputation (10%) and provided to all companies who participate in the process.
